NEWS,
Estancia, N. M.

Entered as second-class matter January 4, 1907, in the post-office at Estancia, N. M., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The Norton, Kansas, Tribune, is responsible for this collection of historical facts:

"An editor and his wife disagree with each other materially. She sets things to rights, and he writes things to set. She reads what others write and he writes what others read. She keeps the devil out of the house as much as possible, while he retains him. She knows more than she writes and he writes more than he knows."

The Irish are famous for "Irish bulls," but no Irishman ever devised a more clever one than is to be found in one of the acts of the late legislature. Among other provisions made by the legislature is this: "The territorial road commission shall on or before the first day of each year, etc." It may be that the author of the law intended to provide that the year should begin before the first of January but he neglected to do so.—Eagle.

"Statehood Sure Next Session, Says Andrews." How painfully familiar those headlines appear. The Andrews boom for re-election in 1910 is well under way. Between securing pensions and statehood the poor delegate does have a mighty strenuous time, and on top of all the work he does, he must needs tell the dear people about it, so they will know how hard he works. Statehood will come in plenty of time, when our legislature ceases to pass such fool laws as to make it a crime to shoot a coyote that is attempting to steal one's chickens or a jackrabbit eating up one's crop; or a law that prohibits ladies under penalty of a heavy fine from visiting places of business within a hundred feet of saloon.

The Albuquerque papers of Monday unintentionally paid the News a compliment worth noticing. After mentioning the return of Prof. J. D. Tinsley's return from a week's investigation of affairs in the Estancia valley, they add an interview with Mr. Tinsley, which although not credited in any manner to the News, is word for word the interview which we published last week. We are wondering whether the reporters could not arrange an interview with Mr. Tinsley or whether they merely thought the interview of the News was better than they could have secured. Well, anyhow, the valley gets what is coming to it, after the scare-heads of "Destitution in Estancia" which were published last week, without foundation nor fact. Give the valley her dues, and we won't kick about ourselves.

One of the most grievous mistakes people make is in believing that energy of mind betokens physical efficiency.

Three things alone are necessary for the preservation of health—regularity of habits, cleanliness and temperance.

A cold bath in the morning not only does some people no good, but simply paves the way for rheumatoid conditions in later years.

TAILOR SHOP

Now Ready for Business Again

I have been away for five months and the Tailor Shop has been closed, but I am now ready to do any kind of Tailoring, Altering, Measuring,
Hat Cleaning and Blocking
Ladies' Skirts a Specialty

I am located at the old stand in my new building. Bring your work and get it done right. Everyone who has ever had me do any work for him, knows that he has been well pleased.

I have been representing as good a woolen house as there is in the country and in the past six seasons I have taken measures for quite a number of suits and all have given perfect satisfaction. So remember when you want any kind of a suit, Ladies or Gents, come and see my line of woollens first. Why? I cater only to the tailoring business of the town, where the other houses have a hundred other things to bother with and naturally can't give you the attention that I do. I have on display in my shop over a hundred yard-length woollens. Come and see them at as early a date as possible.

No matter how dirty your clothes are, remember I can make them look like new ones.

Yours for business
Joe W. Pettus
